- 8.3 We may notify you of changes to this policy [by email or through the private messaging system on our websites].

9. Your rights

- 9.1 You may instruct us to provide you with any personal information we hold about you; provision of such information will be subject to:

- (a) the payment of a fee (currently fixed at GBP 10); and
 - (b) the supply of appropriate evidence of your identity [(for this purpose, we will usually accept a photocopy of your passport certified by a solicitor or bank plus an original copy of a utility bill showing your current address)].
- 9.2 We may withhold personal information that you request to the extent permitted by law.
- 9.3 You may instruct us at any time not to process your personal information for marketing purposes.
- 9.4 In practice, you will usually either expressly agree in advance to our use of your personal information for marketing purposes, or we will provide you with an opportunity to opt out of the use of your personal information for marketing purposes.

10. Third party websites

- 10.1 Our websites include hyperlinks to, and details of, third party websites
- 10.2 We have no control over, and are not responsible for, the privacy policies and practices of third parties.

11. Updating information

- 11.1 Please let us know if the personal information that we hold about you needs to be corrected or updated.

12. Cookies

- 12.1 Our websites use cookies.
- 12.2 A cookie is a file containing an identifier (a string of letters and numbers) that is sent by a web server to a web browser and is stored by the browser. The identifier is then sent back to the server each time the browser requests a page from the server.
- 12.3 Cookies may be either "persistent" cookies or "session" cookies: a persistent cookie will be stored by a web browser and will remain valid until its set expiry date, unless deleted by the user before the expiry date; a session cookie, on the other hand, will expire at the end of the user session, when the web browser is closed.
- 12.4 Cookies do not typically contain any information that personally identifies a user, but personal information that we store about you may be linked to the information stored in and obtained from cookies.
- 12.5 We use [only session cookies / only persistent cookies / both session and persistent cookies] on our websites.
- 12.6 The names of the cookies that we use on our websites, and the purposes for which they are used, are set out below:
- (a) we use [both Persistent & "session"] on our websites to [recognise a computer when a user visits the websites / track users as they navigate the websites / enable the use of a shopping cart on the websites / improve the websites 's usability / analyse the use of the websites / administer the websites / prevent fraud and improve the security of the websites / personalise the websites for each user / target advertisements which may be of particular interest to specific users / [Discount coupons, Savings Vouchers, Special Offers from our partners and employee engagement benefits enhancer(s)]].

(b) [repeat, as necessary.]

12.7 Most browsers allow you to refuse to accept cookies, for example:

- (a) in Internet Explorer (version 11) you can block cookies using the cookie handling override settings available by clicking "Tools", "Internet Options", "Privacy" and then "Advanced";
- (b) in Firefox (version 39) you can block all cookies by clicking "Tools", "Options", "Privacy", selecting "Use custom settings for history" from the drop-down menu, and unticking "Accept cookies from sites"; and
- (c) in Chrome (version 44), you can block all cookies by accessing the "Customise and control" menu, and clicking "Settings", "Show advanced settings" and "Content settings", and then selecting "Block sites from setting any data" under the "Cookies" heading.

12.8 Blocking all cookies will have a negative impact upon the usability of any websites.

12.9 If you block cookies, you will not be able to use all the features on our websites.

12.10 You can delete cookies already stored on your computer, for example:

- (a) in Internet Explorer (version 11), you must manually delete cookie files (you can find instructions for doing so at <http://windows.microsoft.com/en-gb/internet-explorer/delete-manage-cookies#ie=ie-11>);
- (b) in Firefox (version 39), you can delete cookies by clicking "Tools", "Options" and "Privacy", then selecting "Use custom settings for history" from the drop-down menu, clicking "Show Cookies", and then clicking "Remove All Cookies"; and
- (c) in Chrome (version 44), you can delete all cookies by accessing the "Customise and control" menu, and clicking "Settings", "Show advanced settings" and "Clear browsing data", and then selecting "Cookies and other site and plug-in data" before clicking "Clear browsing data".

12.11 Deleting cookies will have a negative impact on the usability of many websites.
